2024 Year of Prayer Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

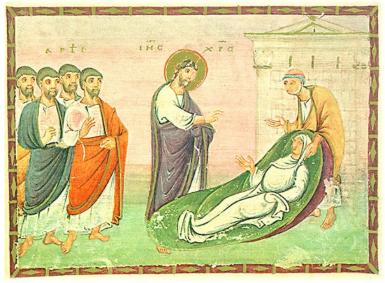

Fifth Week in Ordinary Time Vol I, psalter week I

TODAY'S MASS

First Reading: (Job 7:1-4.6-7) Job complains of hard labour, sleepless nights, illness, and the shortness of his hopeless life. For him, all of life is a fever. In today's Gospel Jesus heals Simon Peter's mother-in-law of the fever.

Psalm: (Ps 146:1-6.R.v3) A hymn of praise to God, who brings back exiles, heals the brokenhearted, and raise the lowly.

Second Reading: (1 Corinthians 9:16-19.22-23) St Paul's calling was to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, even if he doesn't get paid for doing it. His reward is simply to win converts. Although a Jew, he is prepared to live as a gentile among the gentiles in order to convert people to Christ.

Healing Peter's Mother-in-law, from the Codex Egberti, 10th century

Gospel: (Mark 1:29-39) Jesus proclaims the kingdom of God by teaching, preaching, and healing various people of various conditions. That Simon's mother-in-law "began to wait on them" might seem like casual sexism. In fact, she is portrayed by Mark as a good example of a disciple, showing the discipleship of service.

PRAYER INTENTION

In February, during the month in which the Church observes the liturgical memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes, on 11th of February, the World Day of the Sick, Pope Francis invites everyone to pray for the terminally ill and their families. Pope Francis explains that 'when some people talk about terminal illnesses, there are two words they often confuse: incurable and un-carable. But they are not the same.' He cites his predecessor Pope St. John Paul II, in saying, 'Cure if it is possible; always take care.' Pope Francis explains that even when little chance for a cure exists, 'every sick person has the right to medical, psychological, spiritual and human assistance. [...] Healing is not always possible, but we can always care for the sick person." And this is where palliative care comes in. It guarantees the patient not only medical attention, but also human assistance and closeness. 'Let us pray that the terminally ill and their families always receive the necessary medical and human care and assistance.'

SAFEGUARDING

It is the policy of the Catholic Church in England and Wales to report all allegations of abuse to statutory authorities, regardless of whether the abuse occurred recently or in the past, or whether the accused person is living or deceased. If you are concerned about the welfare of a child or adult at risk, do not delay in contacting the police, using 999 if a child or adult is believed to be in immediate danger. Further safeguarding information can be found on the parish website.
